HOST NEEDED!

Oddments Theatre Company are looking for someone to host a member of their team between mid-September and the end of November.

This is a great opportunity to aid them in their ministry of sharing the Christian message through drama.

Your guest will be working in Yeovil, but will also be away touring at times and will have a two-week break in October/November.

Oddments are based at Birchfield Church and are looking for a host who is preferably within reasonable walking distance from this location. They are happy to contribute towards the additional cost you may incur by having an extra person in your household.
